No. 2:15-cv-00940-BJR

ORDER DENYING PLAINTIFFS'
AND DEFENDANTS' DAUBERT
MOTIONS

This matter comes before the court on several motions brought by the parties seeking to exclude each other's witnesses pursuant to Daubert v. Merrell Dow Pharmaceuticals, Inc., 509 U.S. 579 (1993). The plaintiffs, consisting of the Tulalip Tribes and the Consolidated Borough of Quil Ceda Vllage ("Tulalip") and the Plaintiff-Intervenor, the United States ("Plaintiffs") move to exclude the testimony of Dr. Justin Marlowe (ECF 157), Michael Hodgins (ECF 158), and Mukesh Bajaj (ECF 156). Defendants, the State of Washington and Snohomish County ("Defendants"), not to be outdone, move to exclude the testimony of Jason Bass (154), Dr. Joseph

1 Kalt (ECF 150), Dr. James Hines, Jr. (ECF 146), and Ian Smith (ECF 151). The Court has
2 reviewed the briefing of the parties and concludes that the motions will be DENIED.

3 Although Daubert refers to the “trier of fact,” it is evident from the opinion and subsequent
4 cases that the concerns about expert testimony and the need for a court review in order to assure
5 that only qualified experts testify are most relevant in jury cases. This case being a bench trial, the 6 court will be able to hear the testimony of the parties’ experts and, with the benefit of cross-
7 examination, ascertain whether the testimony meets Daubert requirements and also ascertain the 8 weight to be given to each expert’s testimony.
9

10 The Court will take this occasion to remind counsel that the court will allow only one expert
11 on any given subject. Repetitive testimony will not be permitted. Counsel shall reexamine their 12 witness lists to make sure that repetitive testimony does not occur.

13 Furthermore, having reviewed the proposed content of witness Ian Smith as presented in
14 plaintiffs’ briefing, the Court is of the opinion that his testimony would best be proffered in written
15 format not to exceed 20 pages. Any reply should not exceed 20 pages.

17 IT IS SO ORDERED.
